Di. Townsent: My wife being greatly distressed by weakness and general debility, and suffering continually by pain and with other diffications, and having known cases where your medicine has effected great cures; and also hearing it recommended for such cases as I have described, I obtained a bettle of your Extract of Sarsaparilla and followed the directions you gave me. In a short period it removed her complaints and restored her to health. Being greatful for the benefits she received. I take pleasure in thus acknowledging it, and recommending it to the public.

Albany, Aug. 17, '14, cor. Grand & Lydin six.

No fluid or medicina has ever been discovered which so nearly resembles the gastric piace or saliva in decomposing food and strengthening the organs of discussion at his preparation of Sarsaparilla. It positively cures every case of dyspepsia, however severe or chronic.

But Dr. Townsend—Sir: I have been afficied for several years with dyspopsia in its worst form, altended with a surness of stomach, loss of appetite, extreme hearthurn, and a great aversion to all kinds of food, and for weeks, (what I could east) I have been unable to retain but a small portion on my stomach. I tried the usual remedics, but they had lant little or no effect in removing the complaint. I was induced, about two mouths since, to try your Extract of Sarsapariba, and I must say with little confidence; int after using nearly two bottles, I found my appetite restored and tha hearthurn entirely removed; and I would carnestly recombined for the surner of the complaint.

Dear Sir.—I have been a dyspeptic sufferer for about ten years, and have resorted to various medicines for relief with oil success, until I made use of your "Oxygenated Bitters." I have used about two bottles, and find myself restored to perfect health. The forms in which the diacesse showed itself, in my case, were, great acidity of the stomach, base of appetite, extreme flatalence, severe constitution that a knowledge of your valuable remedy may reach to there similarly afflicted. I take great pleasure in recording my testimony to its curative power; and would also remuck, that while on a visit at home a short time since, I administered a part of a bottle to a number of my afflicted friends, with great success. They are desirous that you should establish an agency at Pittsburg, or inform them where the medicine can be obtained. The Proprietors feel a reluctance in promulgating what in any way might appear like the usual Bombastic exaggeration of some in the trade, but will be gleave to quote the following notice from one of our city papers;

"One of the greatest curiosities that our City affords to the stranger, is BENNETT & CO's great clothing store, No. 182 Market Street, between Fifth and Bixth, which has been styled "Tower Hait," from the peculiar finish of the front. The building is an immense one, containing seven capacious rooms, all of which are stocked with every variety of seasonable garments, arranged in the most perfect order and regularity. The proprietors take great pleasure in showing their building and contents to the citizens, particularly strangers, and to those coming from the country—we know of no place more worthy of a visit."
